

A Prophetic Word of Destiny - Philippines

A major change will take place in the political arena this year 2009 paving the way for a new administrative system. Single men single system will be replaced by a coalition of forces that will elect their own into a position of power. A consensus will be found among various groups to collaborate together for national interest. Past coalitions have not worked until now; an elected person with the consensus of the majority in the coalition will lead the nation.

The Spirit of God shows me it will be a smooth transition into the next era; This will be a surprise to many. The violence, corruption often related to the Philippines will be minimal. The street demonstrations will not be needed anymore as the people who are regal and destined for a better hope of a greater future will lead the pathway to change. The political climate will change drastically this year 2009. This is the defining moments of the nation in the history of this nation. There will be a miraculous appreciation of all for the change in leadership to take place. This welcomed change will usher in the years of amazing development and progress.

The age of favour will see a governance of righteousness and integrity of intentions. Those who lead into the future will be champions of cooperation and not divisive through competition. Those who lead into the future will restore the nation to the desires of the forefathers for its vision and for its policies.

God has put a broad blueprint of the future through the voice of the past. The forefathers echoed an intervention of God for a nation set aside for His Purpose. This will draw the nation into her destiny.

The people of God will be positioned for greater influence into this nation when the elections are over. There will be many righteous and godly Christian politicians that will advance kingdom purposes in this nation. Some who will come into positions of power on their own merit though not Christians will also turn to kingdom living when in the place of power.

The lord has seen the afflictions of the poor and needy in the land and He Himself will intervene in their affairs and defend their case. The orphan, widows and the poor will see the vindication of God. The redistribution of wealth in the nation will be entrusted to godly men like Joseph. The system currently flourishes with the greed and covetousness of men. This corrupt act is destroying equal and proper spread of His resources for His people. "The days of plunder is over," says the Lord. The days of plenty will flow into the nation.

The decays and decline in the system has also prevented men to come favourably to her with investments. I see in the Spirit, ships and planes and land transportation carrying resources into the nation in a new and living way chartered by the lives, policies and promises of righteous men.

The nations will once again believe in the nation. I see in a vision the forefathers of the land particularly Jose Rizal standing up to speak for the Philippines to be free from plunder and destruction.

I see in this vision; elderly gentlemen everywhere along the coasts of the Islands of the Philippines, welcoming foreign visitors and also locals who are returning. People will trust that there is hope and future in this nation of the Philippines.

Sons and daughters who are slaves and labourers will return after 2010 by plane loads as there will be a new age of peace, progress and prosperity.

The current system (including the religious systems) has gone through all the attacks that can be sent against it. It has become obsolete. Behold a new day is breaking out. A new dawn is rising over the Philippines. The years ahead are years of plenty.

The Lord has commanded the ground to bring forth rice and all its agricultural produce. The Lord has decreed a decree revoking the decrees of the spirit of death and plunder through the typhoons, floods and earthquakes and other climatical catastrophes. There will be minimal loss of life. The hand of the Lord has been stretched out to save and deliver.

The nation will usher in a five to seven year period of the favour of men and God's enduring blessing will be upon her.

The nations of the earth will discover her as one just newly discovered and will be excited with her. Her state and her status will be favourable for investments and also for the transfer of technology and expertise. Many craftsmen will work in the midst of the nation upgrading the local talent. God will send kings to become your guardians and princesses to be your nurses. God will lift up a standard to the peoples of the earth to honour you by only sending the best to train and equip you. This will also include spiritual men of calibre and those that are regal to minister to you (Isaiah 49:22-23). The days of plunderers, thieves and inaccurate ministries sent to the Philippines are over. Only those who are regal will gain influence over the nation and into the hearts of the people.

Spiritual, corporate and government leaders are being repositioned in strategic places for the Inevitable Transfer of power to the Righteous in the nation. Those who are accurately positioned will rise to prominence and carry a stature of influence in this nation.
